

Problem 1:

In IREF, variables are bound to integers because these integers represent the address of the corresponding expressed value in the memory. References are implicit in IREF, so implicit pointers are implemented this way.